

LEAVE A LEGACY

A few words in your Will can change generations

A FEW WORDS IN YOUR WILL CAN SAFEGUARD FIRST NATIONS' HERITAGE, CREATE OPPORTUNITIES FOR THEIR COMMUNITIES, AND SHARE THEIR STORIES WITH PRIDE ON A GLOBAL STAGE.

Aboriginal Tourism Western Australia (ATWA) was established as a separate charitable entity of WAITOC to diversify funding and sustainability. ATWA is a registered charitable body with the purpose of accepting philanthropic funding donations and corporate sponsorships, increasing resilience and enhancing opportunities in each under-supported region across Western Australia, improving the development of First Nations tourism, and entrepreneurial expertise.

Some of the ways your gift can help:

Culture is restored and preserved with culture being passed down to future generations, stronger connections to Country and cultural identity, greater options for First Nations people to live within their chosen community – all honouring and respecting ancestors and Elders.

Intergenerational wealth is created driven by significant employment, and sustainable First Nations-owned enterprise growth, with a particular focus on inspiring young First Nations people to view tourism as a career path.

Australia's national identity is enriched by authentic First Nations storytelling and perspectives, with policies shaped by First Nations voices.

A bequest to ATWA in your Will is a special and powerful way to support a cause that is important to you and to the community.

If you choose to leave a gift to ATWA, you can be assured that any amount – large or small – will make a valuable difference to First Nations communities.
